T-Play KHATIB

ABOUT US

T-Play at HomeTeamNS Khatib is the first indoor playground of its kind in Singapore, showcasing a unique local Peranakan cultural theme. The playground was created in partnership with The Intan, a well-known Peranakan Home Museum, with the aim of introducing children to the fascinating Peranakan culture. Drawing inspiration from the lively colours and pioneering spirit of early Peranakans, T-Play Khatib offers enjoyable and educational experiences for both kids and adults.

Inside T-Play Khatib, you'll discover a range of exciting attractions. There's a bouncy trampoline for active play, a towering climbing slide for adventurous spirits, a sports pitch for fun games, and even a foam ball shooting arena for friendly competitions. There's something for everyone, including the youngest adventurers, with a specially designed ninja course just for toddlers. All of these exciting features come together to offer a place where you can have fun while learning and discovering new things.

T-Play BUKIT BATOK

ABOUT US

T-Play, the first-of-its-kind indoor playground at HomeTeamNS, is a unique transportation-themed space originally from Sweden and now brought to life in Singapore. Spanning 4,200 square feet within HomeTeamNS Bukit Batok, this engaging establishment hosts interactive play areas that nurture children's mental development, motor skills, and spatial understanding. T-Play earned the esteemed 2018/19 Young Parents SG Parents' Choice award for its seamless blend of entertainment and education. In addition to regular play, the playground caters to special events like birthdays and field trips, offering customized options to suit diverse preferences.

T-Play in Bukit Batok boasts thrilling attractions, including a trampoline, ball pits, and slides. Drawing inspiration from airport features, the design transports young adventurers into a realm of enjoyable learning. The playground introduces kids to various modes of transportation, enabling them to explore and discover while having fun. Additionally, they can unleash their creativity at T-Play Workshop, an arts and crafts area.
